Florida Friendly Landscape Training Eustis offers free training to the public

EUSTIS – The City of Eustis will be conducting free Florida Friendly Landscape Training for the public, developers, builders and homeowners at 1:00 – 5:00 pm, Friday, June 15th, 2007 at the Garden Room at Carver Park (Recreation Building) located at 2214 East Bates Avenue, Eustis, Florida.

Teresa Watkins, Multi-County Program Coordinator for the University of Florida Institute of Food and Agriculture Sciences, Florida Yards & Neighborhoods Program, will be conducting the training which covers the following topics:

- Right plant, right place
- Water efficiently
- Fertilize appropriately
- Mulch
- Attract wildlife
- Manage yard pests
- Protect the waterfront

Here is a great opportunity to learn which plants do well in Florida, how to deal with drought conditions, what kind of problems your grass has and much more - all FREE!!

Florida Yards & Neighborhoods (FYN) is an environmental educational program of the University of Florida Extension informing the public how they can be more environmentally friendly with their landscape practices, helping to protect Florida's natural environment for future generations.
