Volunteer Eustis! A City Partnership Volunteer Exposition

EUSTIS – The City of Eustis and its non-profit partners present Volunteer Eustis – A City Partnership Volunteer Exposition at 9 am – Noon on Saturday, April 4, 2009, at the American Legion Building located at 101 S. Bay Street.

Participants promoting volunteerism and highlighting volunteer opportunities available to the public will include: Bay Street Players, The Lake Eustis Museum of Art, Trout Lake Nature Center, The Chamber of Commerce, The Lake Eustis Institute, Public Arts and Music, Eustis Main Street, the Lake Eustis Historical Museum, The Lake Eustis Sailing Club, and Rube Lab. The City's volunteer opportunities include the Facilities and Recreation Department. Come learn what is available and how you might share your knowledge, talents and skills in vital roles within these organizations.

“With so many different organizations and so many activities happening in Eustis, there are lots of ways volunteers can contribute to the success of our community”, said Wayne Carter, Executive Director at Eustis Main Street. “Most of our organizations are community based and volunteer driven.”
