OFFICIAL STATEMENT FROM SCOTT ALES

The City of Eustis,

It has been my privilege to fully involve myself in the matters of the City of Eustis and the surrounding area. My resignation is by no means an action to quit participating in the continuing effort, quite the contrary. I will not be moving out of town and will maintain an active role as time avails itself. This position for myself and my family was never intended to be a permanent career. Due to personal and family reasons, I have officially resigned from the Commission as of today. Many, many, reasons led me to this decision. If I were to list even a few, it would be unfair to me. It is also important that anyone reading this understands that this was a careful and prayerful act. If you happen to know me personally, that will not surprise you.

My family and I appreciate this community more than words can convey. It is a wonderful place and even more wonderful are the people in it! I now challenge you to take a more significant role as I have over the last four and a half years. Please feel free to contact me for any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Scott M. Ales
(still your servant)
